Old Business

Heidi Becker provided an update on Buy It For a Song, which will occur on Thursday, November 7, 2013.

She provided us with preview programs with the eight live auction items for sale and information about the twenty-nine silent auction items. The stage will be set up Wednesday afternoon with Mr. Lammers and theater tech students. Consider staying after the event to help tear down the stage and lights. Everything must be returned to the stage before leaving Thursday.

Memberships continue to come in. Susan Russell has processed 110 memberships and these total $21,500.

Susie Coleman met with Cyndie Birchansky and discussed past Java and Jazz events.

Susie is in need of a co-chair for this event. It is December 3, 2013 at 6:30 p.m.

The List- The Manard's are working on completing this and it will be distributed soon. They have discussed the progress with Thomas Wolle.

New Business

Bill Lammers presented the needs of Slice of Jazz. The sound needs are critical with the soundboard and microphones in need of replacement. The estimate cost of replacing the soundboard and microphones is $5000. This equipment is used for traveling productions, Mo Show , assemblies and rehearsals twice a week. Mr. Lammers will check into any grants that he may apply for and will discuss with Dr. Plagman about funding available. The meeting attendees discussed this topic and will be voting and furthering the discussion at our next meeting.
