

Jackson Peter Evans

Inducted into the Hall of Fame in 2025

Jackson Peter Evans grew up just a few blocks from Washington High School where he graduated in 2002. Favorite performing memories from his school years include Momentum, Noises Off, West Side Story, 42nd Street, MuDaCo. Outside of school, his favorite local onstage performances at TCR included La Cage Aux Folles, Tommy, Anything Goes, and Big River. He then earned a degree in theater at Northwestern University where his favorite shows included On The Town, How to Succeed, Once Upon a Mattress, and Waa-Mu. As a Chicago-based professional actor, favorite roles have included Mendel in Falsettos, Lumiere in Beauty and the Beast, Ricky in Ride the Cyclone, Victor Garber in Titanique, Michael in Boys in the Band, Princeton in Avenue Q, Nathan Detroit in Guys and Dolls and touring with Second City in The Realish Housewives. During his career, Jackson has three Joseph Jefferson award nominations. “The only reason I could be a successful actor is because I was supported and encouraged by my incredible parents Nancy and Jack Evans.” He’s also a proud cancer survivor. But his proudest moment was winning Best Male Stage Presence in his final Show Choir competition with Momentum.
